Terms and conditions:

The management reserves the right to accept or approve membership subject to the centre policies. Account holder is fully responsible to ensure that extra cards are used only for the use of the group. One of the card holders must be present at all times to operate the courts. I am happy to receive court booking confirmations, reminders and program updates & news by e mail. membership Refund policy: Refundable within 30 days for change of mind in which case casual fee will be charged for the courts used . I Agree to follow all the NZBC rules and regulations as & when published on notice boards and website. I give consent to display photos & videos where I may be part of a group or club session/training or my achievement may be highlighted & displayed on notice boards and website for the development & promotion of the sport. I will in no way hold NZBC clubs or the management responsible for any injury or mishap that may occur in the course of play at the badminton centre accidentally or due to any adverse weather conditions. Centre programs take priority over all pvt bookings and if a booked court is not available it will be refunded. Terms & rates are subject to review by the management without notice. I will personally pay for all the damages done accidentally or wilfully by me or any of my visitors or players played under my account. As account holder I irrevocably guarantee payment together with legal & collection fees of mine and/or of all and any sum payable by all extra registered members or visitors played under my card. I understand that my group membership will be cancelled without any refund of subscription in the event of breach of the above terms or the centre court usage rules published on the website.
